WORKSHOP BRIEF

Making Better Decisions with Simple Models

60 minutes • 24 students • 2 facilitators

Purpose. Introduce simple models for decision-making through a short introduction, a hands-on experiment, group discussion, and questions.

Practical setup. Attendees bring laptops; no specialist software is required.

Schedule

Time	Length	Activity	Lead
0:00–0:05	5 min	Welcome, goals, and setup	Facilitator 1
0:05–0:15	10 min	Introduction: simple models and decision-making	Facilitator 1
0:15–0:35	20 min	Hands-on experiment using a simple model	Both
0:35–0:50	15 min	Small-group discussion: compare results and decisions	Facilitator 2
0:50–1:00	10 min	Questions, takeaways, and close	Both

Total scheduled time: 60 minutes

Budget (checked)

Item	Calculation	Cost
Refreshments	24 × $8	$192
Handouts	24 × $2	$48
Room	Fixed	$120
Contingency	Fixed	$40
Total		$400

Fictional demonstration data only. This is not a confirmed event or room booking.

Open decisions

• Confirm the event date/time and room booking. • Choose the hands-on model/experiment and prepare materials. • Confirm refreshments and handout arrangements.